On August 4, 1999, Western Wireless filed with the Commission a petition under section 214(e)(6) seeking a designation of eligibility to receive federal universal service support for a service area comprised of the Crow Reservation in Montana.<sup>1</sup> Specifically, Western Wireless contends that telecommunications service offered on the Crow Reservation is not subject to the jurisdiction of the state commission. the Crow Reservation.<sup>4</sup> To permit Western Wireless a fair opportunity to present its case consistent with the guidance provided in the Twelfth Report and Order, the Commission allowed Western Wireless an opportunity to supplement its claim that the Montana Commission lacks jurisdiction to make the eligibility designations for service provided on the Crow Reservation.<sup>5</sup>

On October 2, 2000, Western Wireless filed a Jurisdictional Supplement in response to the Commission's directive in the Twelfth Report and Order to support its contention that the state commission does not have jurisdiction to designate Western Wireless as an eligible telecommunications carrier on the Crow Reservation.<sup>6</sup> Consistent with the procedures outlined in the Twelfth Report and Order, the Montana Commission and any other interested party shall have 30 days after publication of this Public Notice in the Federal Register to respond to Western Wireless' original petition and supplemental filing. Interested parties will then have 15 days to file reply comments. The Commission will send a copy of this Public Notice, by overnight express mail, to the Montana Commission. The Commission will also publish this Public Notice in the Federal Register. To ensure that all interested parties are aware of the comment dates, the Common Carrier Bureau will issue a Public Notice following Federal Register publication specifying the exact comment and reply comment dates.

Pursuant to sections 1.415 and 1.419 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.415, 1.419, interested parties may file comments as follows: comments are due 30 days after publication of the Public Notice in the Federal Register, and reply comments are due 45 days after publication of the Public Notice in the Federal Register.
